WELCOME STATEMENT

Holy Trinity joyfully extends Christ's love to all. We welcome everyone regardless of race, age, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, physical or mental health, faith, doubt, family composition, political affiliation, socio-economic status, or any other category that divides us. Christ taught us that loving is a never-ending process of growth and reconciliation. At Holy Trinity, we strive to love diversely and deeply. To all who have been marginalized, we will work to demonstrate that nothing can separate you from the love of God.

"There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus." Galatians 3:28.

OUR LOCATION

Holy Trinity Lutheran Church is located on the original and ancestral homelands of the Mitsqanaqan Ventureño Chumash Tribes and Peoples, and we give thanks for their presence here since time immemorial. We also wish to recognize and honor all our Indigenous siblings who have and continue to call this land their home. In making this acknowledgment, we are pledging not to forget them or their story, and to learn from them and our common history.

SENIOR SOCIAL EVENT

HTLC's Seniors, you are invited to meet again on November 18th at 1pm. We will gather in the smaller Fellowship Hall East for cookies and conversation. Sign up in the narthex to let us know how many to expect. Contact Marty Schwalm if you need a ride. Please join us!

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Longtime church member Mary Hekhuis peacefully passed away on Sunday, October 4th in Gardnerville, Nevada. She was 97 years old. Mary's family invites you to attend her funeral service, held here at Holy Trinity on November 21 at 2:00 pm.

PASTOR'S NOTE FROM PASTOR ERIK

REIGN OF CHRIST VS. CHRIST THE KING

If you are in a church tradition that follows a liturgical calendar like many Lutheran Churches do, then the last Sunday of the church year comes right before the beginning of advent. On the regular calendar, this typically falls around the third or fourth week of November. This year it is on Sunday, November 22. This last Sunday of the church year is a festival Sunday and it is called Christ the King Sunday. This image is meant to emphasize that Christ is the true ruler of all. Christ is the one who we owe our allegiance to over everything else. But in our modern society, is the image of a king really the best one to associate with Jesus?

Kings have a bad reputation in American history. Our nation was birthed out of the very idea that people should be able to have a say in how they are governed, and not be beholden to the whims of a king. This was the core idea that kindled the flame of the revolution that began the origins of what we know as American democracy. Given this history, is this Image of Christ the King Sunday something to be lifted up, or is it problematic for the message that is trying to be conveyed?

Although the point of saying that Christ is king is to show how he is the true ruler over all, when we think of that image it's hard not to also picture the typical trappings around a king. We might think of the opulence of a palace. We might think of the excesses of so many kings throughout history at the expense of their own people. We might think of the cruel authority that so many kings have perpetrated upon their people. Yes, the point is to show that Jesus is a different kind of king, but regardless if he is different, it is still an image that has negative associations.

Because of these negative associations wrapped up in the image of King, we are trying something different this year with how we talk about Christ the King Sunday as a festival Sunday on the Church calendar. We are going to be using the language of the "Reign" of Christ instead of Christ the "King." By talking about the reign of Christ, we hope to get at the same idea of the festival Sunday, but with language that avoids a negative historical image.

While the word reign can be a noun, it can also be used as a verb to describe something that is at work. This gets at more of the spirit of what this festival Sunday is all about. At the end of this church year, when we have once again heard the story of the birth, life, death and resurrection of Jesus, the question remains, who will then reign over our hearts? What ideas, images, or emotions around who God is will we allow to rule in our minds when it comes to our concept of God's action in the world?

Will it be the kingly, authoritarian image of a dominating force that we then use as an excuse to dominate others? Or will it be the humble image of a good Shepherd willing to go to the cross for the sheep of his flock in order to show them a different way? Will it be the Image of a risen Lord, who although he goes through great suffering is able to still remain faithful to the values and beliefs of compassion and forgiveness and thereby still find new life in the midst of that suffering?

These are the questions that challenge us as followers of Jesus as we come to the end of the church year. These are the reflections that we are called to wrestle with as we come and worship on Reign of Christ Sunday.

TUESDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY BOOK OF EZRA

In November we will be studying of the Book of Ezra from the Hebrew Scriptures. We will go through it chapter by chapter for and in-depth reflection of what is going on at the time and how it might relate to us today.

Ezra is set during the period of the Jewish return from Babylonian exile, which began in 538 BC under the decree of Cyrus, the Persian king. During this time, the Israelites were permitted to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple, which had been destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar in 586 BC. Ezra recounts this return of the Jewish exiles from Babylon to Jerusalem under the leadership of Zerubbabel and later Ezra. It highlights the rebuilding of the temple, the restoration of worship, and the reestablishment of the Law. Ezra emphasizes God's faithfulness, the importance of obedience, and the need for spiritual renewal.

Come join us on Tuesday mornings at 10:30am in the Fellowship Hall for lively conversation. If we finished Ezra early, we may begin looking at the Book of Nehemiah also in November which comes right after Ezra in the Bible and documents similar events.

Reading Guide:

Nov. 3 - Chapters 5 & 6
Nov. 10 - Chapters 7 & 8
Nov. 17 - Chapters 9 & 10
Nov. 24 - The Book of Nehemiah Chapters 1 & 2

HTLC WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Join us Saturday, November 14 at 2:00pm in the Fellowship Hall for the third session of our Bible Study theme Bold Faith on an Unexpected Journey. This session is titled "Proclaiming Resurrection in Hope" as we read and contemplate Mary Magdalene's story.

"Being sent to share an experience with Jesus is at the heart of Mary Magdalene's story. . . her bold faith shows us how God meets us where we are and sends us to share good news."
Join us as we share our stories of good news.

NOVEMBER MEDITATION GROUP

Silence is half of our meditation time. John Main writes: Silence … touches our common life together so that we can share a sense of the mysterious power both in our midst and beyond us. We should allow our spirit a space within which to expand. In the tradition of meditation this space for expansion of spirit is to be found in silence…which grows in every part of our lives. It becomes a silence that we can only describe as the infinite silence of God, the eternal silence. Moment of Christ

We invite you to meditate with us every Thursday at 4 pm and find out about silence. Thursday, November 5th, we meet via Zoom and November 12th and 19th we meet in the church library. Contact Miriam at miriamnakayama@gmail.com for a Zoom invite. We do not meet on November 26th, since it is Thanksgiving.

We are grateful for God's presence and his comforting silence, as well as our community of meditators!

Grandparent's Day and Halloween Parades were so much fun for students, families, and staff alike. Grandparents were so happy to be included in their grandchild's class to read books and visit. Halloween costumes were adorable and it was such a delight to see the kids' joy. We love celebrating here at Honey Tree!

November finds us enjoying cooler weather, cozy socks and most importantly, celebrating the joy of giving to others. Thanksgiving is such a wonderful holiday to celebrate the gift of sharing and inclusivity. Sharing our bounties with others is the most rewarding experience of all.

Pajama Day is coming up which is a super cozy day where even staff comes in our pajamas. If only we could wear them everyday!

Thank you all for your continued support you have given Honey Tree! We are so grateful for you all.

Parents interested in signing up their child should contact the school to secure a spot in a class. (805) 492-1232. Office@myhoneytree.com

DORCA'S QUILTING CIRCLE

The group is completing holiday quilts for the Christmas season. If anyone has spare or left over holiday fabric we could use some to help enhance the quilts. The comfort quilts are very popular and uplifting especially to someone needing some holiday cheer.

Thanksgiving and autumn quilts are available in the Church Office if anyone has a loved one that would enjoy one.

The group will meet Thursday, November 19 after 9:00am in the Fellowship Hall.
All are welcome!

REJOICING ABOUT THE FAIR TRADE CHRISTMAS SALE WITH MIRIAM

MANNA CONEJO VALLEY

Veterans Day Food Drive | Oct 26th – Nov 13th
HTLC is joining Gold Coast Veterans Foundation's food drive for Manna Conejo Valley Food Bank. Place donations in the GCVF barrels in the narthex, near the usual Manna collection area, through Friday, November 13. No glass, please.

Most needed: cereal, dry pasta, canned pasta sauce, baking supplies, canned meat and beans, soup, oatmeal packets, condiments, personal care items, toilet paper, and paper towels.

Thank you for the 38 pounds of groceries donated in October – and thank you to all our veterans!
– Karen and Marty Kreman

THEA BOOK CIRCLE

For the month of November we will read the Nobel Prize winner The Bluest Eye by Toni Morrison. This banned book takes place in the author's hometown of Lorain, Ohio and tells the story of Pecola Breedlove, an 11 year old black girl, whose greatest wish is to have blue eyes and blonde hair so that she will be loved. Our meeting will be Monday November 30, at 7:00pm in the church library.

LIBRARY NEWS

This Thanksgiving month, I am grateful for the variety of books in our library, old and new. There are several volumes published in the 1800's. There are some just published, like the book about Martin Luther King titled King. I'm grateful for Brian McGuire who reviews books in our library, or at least brings our attention to thought provoking books. I'm grateful for people who donate books when we talk about a need for a certain book in our library. I'm grateful for people who love a book they have checked out and tell others about it. I'm grateful for anyone who browses our shelves!

Because the fair trade Red Barn Cheese Farm is closing, we will not be able to order cheese when Ascension Lutheran runs out of the big order of cheese from which they sell to us. I will buy some cheese and have one last cheese sampling event in December. Possibly December 6th.

Books on the shelves in November and December will be about the holidays and seasons in those months

Finally, I'm grateful for you reading this article about the library!

-Miriam Nakayama

ADVENT/CHRISTMAS DECORATING

Join us for a day of decorating the church for the Advent and Christmas seasons – morning of Saturday, December 5th. Many hands make light work!

Decorations will come down on Saturday, January 9th (after Epiphany).

WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Please join us in welcoming our newest members to Holy Trinity! Get to know them below, and say hello when you see them at church.

Rodger Benjamins & James Yeramian

We are Rodger and James, aged 59 and 49 respectively, a married couple since June of 2016. Rodger is a CFO for a group of aerospace companies and James is a Public Hearing Specialist for a California public agency.

Rodger was raised by an atheist father and an agnostic mother. He began his search for God at the age of 12 with the intent of finding God on his own. He has never been a member of a church, has never been baptized, and has received no formal religious training of any kind. In his mid 20s he was introduced to The Urantia Book as a self-study. Through its illumination of the Bible and the life and teachings of Jesus, Rodger increasingly finds God to be near, even within us, and regards true religion to be a personal relationship with our Divine Parent.

James, when a toddler, was baptized in the Armenian Apostolic Church. He didn't attend church regularly, but was raised in a strict, religious household. Beyond traditional religious observances that were required and expected, James has always been led by his faith in God as a deeply personal experience.

Rodger and James are interested in joining the church because of its universal welcoming in the spirit of Jesus' teachings concerning the fact that God is no respecter of persons.

Mary Jo Lord

I have been a horse trainer for over 50 years.

I am very busy with my four beautiful grandchildren! I'm looking forward to becoming a member of Holy Trinity Church.

Olha Nesvitailova

I am a 3D Environment Artist from Ukraine and recently moved to the United States. I work with computer graphics for films and other projects. You can see some of my work here:

https://www.artstation.com/olhanesvitailova

I am also a singer. I have participated in solo performances and opera productions here in California.

Fox and Lisa Beam

Al Nascimento

I am from Manteca, California and moved to Thousand Oaks for college, then ended up staying in the area. I grew up outside of the Lutheran church, but learned more about it while attending CLU. I work at the Civic Arts Plaza and teach with CVUSD, so I can be seen throughout the community (look for a bright red motorcycle, that's me!).

Holy Trinity has been welcoming and comforting during a personal time of discovery for me. I look forward to being a part of this community.

Claudia Serrano

I live in Moorpark.

I am currently studying for my MS in clinical psychology and I work with children with autism for the Moorpark Unified School District as well as as an IHSS (In-Home Supportive Services) provider for the disabled.

In my free time, I love to read, crochet, hike, and spend time with loved ones.

I'm shy and believe I may be on the spectrum (I'm undiagnosed). I do my best with socializing, which is my greatest area of struggle.

I'm hoping to find some community at Holy Trinity. I love how compassionate and accepting everyone is.

Welcome

HEARTS & HANDS SERVICE PROJECT

ICONS IN WORSHIP

At Holy Trinity, we believe that worship should be accessible, welcoming, and meaningful for everyone. Worship speaks through many forms, from songs and prayers to Scripture, water, bread, and blessing. Starting in October, we will add a consistent set of worship icons into our bulletins, slides, and other materials. By doing so, we hope to make the different elements of worship more recognizable and easier to follow, especially for children, visitors, and for those who might find this a helpful way to process information.

This is one more step in our ongoing commitment to accessibility and inclusion. Over the years, we've worked to make our space more accessible and inclusive by doing things like building a ramp to the patio, relocating the children's prayer area so kids can see and participate more fully in worship, and removing the platform in the sanctuary so a physical obstacle doesn't prevent someone from wanting to help leading.

In that same spirit, these icons are a small but meaningful gesture that can change how someone experiences the space around them. They help communicate that everyone belongs and everyone is invited to participate. We are excited to begin using these icons in our worship materials and to create a worship "game board" for children, giving them another way to engage with and follow the flow of worship as active members of our community. Additionally, just as our hearing sets assist people in listening during worship, we will also make large magnifying glasses available in the sanctuary to those who may find it useful for reading documents like the bulletin. Keep an eye out for those in the narthex/entryway to the Sanctuary as you pick up your bulletin on Sunday mornings!

ADVENT WORSHIP: UNTIL THE DAWN

Just as surely as the sun rises, God's steadfast love and mercy are made new every morning.

As the Worship Arts Team was discussing the Advent theme: Until the Dawn, it made us think of the song "Light Dawns on a Weary World" ELW 726. The song expresses how light, love, and hope dawn in a weary world as God calls us to be a part of the work of restoring creation, feeding the hungry, and treating all people with dignity. When this happens,

The trees shall clap their hands;
the dry lands, gush with springs;
the hills and mountains shall break forth with singing!
We shall go out in joy,
and be led forth in peace,
as all the world in wonder echoes shalom.

What beautiful imagery! What a beautiful world we can build together! To inspire us on our Advent journey, we're inviting you to bring in images that help illustrate this hymn - light dawning on a weary world. Whether it is pictures of people, animals, or nature, we want to see the ways you feel, see, and experience God leading us in joy and peace so that one day, the whole world echoes shalom.

Bring in a photograph, draw or paint a picture. Sizes can range from 4x6 to 8x10. We will have a wall where you can post your images. They will hang in the Sanctuary or Narthex for the entire Advent and Christmas season.

Be on the lookout for Advent Devotion Booklets and Advent calendars!
